PRIVATE ACTS—CHARTERS.

ANNAPOLIS AND ELKRIDGE RAILROAD COMPANY.

AN ACT amendatory of the act passed at December session, eighteen hundred and forty-six, chapter two hundred and thirty-four, entitled, a supplement to an act concerning the Annapolis and Elkridge Railroad Company, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and forty-one, chapter one hundred and sixty-eight.

WHEREAS, by the act passed at December session eighteen hundred and forty-six, chapter two hundred and thirty-four, the Annapolis and Elkridge Railroad Company were authorized to issue bonds of said Company to John Higham, for the sum of nine thousand and ninety-two dollars and sixty cents, in full of the balance due on a judgment recovered by said John Higham against said Company, which said bonds were to be paid in like manner as the bonds issued under the original act; and whereas, by the construction placed on the proviso to said act, the State Treasurer has withheld from the said John Higham and his representatives, the interest due upon said bonds, contrary to the manifest intention of the Legislature in passing said act; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Treasurer of the State pay to the representatives and assigns of the said John Higham, out of the profits particularly assigned in the second section of the said act of December session, eighteen hundred and forty-one, chapter one hundred and sixty-eight, the interest now due upon the bonds issued in pursuance of the act of eighteen hundred and forty-six, chapter two hundred and thirty-four, and he shall hereafter pay interest upon the said bonds in the same manner as interest is directed by the act of eighteen hundred and forty-one, chapter one hundred and sixty-eight, to be paid upon the bonds issued in pursuance of said last mentioned act, and the proviso to the act of eighteen hundred and forty-six, chapter two hundred and thirty-four, shall be construed to mean that no payment on account of the principal of said bonds, by said act directed to be issued, shall be made until after the payment of the bonds issued under the original act aforesaid.

SEC. 2 And be it enacted, That this act shall be in force from the day of its passage.
